

Yolanda Webb

C-Suite Executive Leader
Public Policy Expert
Workforce / Health Equity Expert

BIO

Intellection | Strategic | Activator | Connectedness | Input

Yolanda is an accomplished professional with an extensive executive leadership and entrepreneurial background. With more than three decades of experience in the government, philanthropic, business, and nonprofit sectors, she focuses on leadership, board development, fiscal management, strategy, organizational development, human capital management, operations, and compliance.

She is a leadership development specialist, author, speaker, and behavioral inclusion expert who uses interactive storytelling to connect with her clients. She is a relationship builder and community connector.

Yolanda has oversight of more than $415,000,000 in revenue with both national and global spans of control. She has a proven track record of success in the private and public sectors. Yolanda is a strategic thinker and believes that an organization's success rests with the development of its people.

Known as the "People Whisperer," and a renaissance woman, Yolanda is the former CEO of luxury cosmetics brand, E'LON Cosmetics distributed through Macy's Department Stores.

A graduate of the HBCU (Historically Black College and University) Tennessee State University in Nashville, TN, Yolanda has served in several critical senior executive leadership roles across the nation.

During her tenure in Ohio, Yolanda earned several leadership awards, and accolades for Women to Watch. Yolanda obtained a Master of Arts in Humanities from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Yolanda is a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. She is actively engaged in the community serving on several non-profit boards including Kavod, The American Red Cross (CO/WY Chapter), Impact100MD (current Board Chair & President)), and the International Women's Forum.

She is a proud 2022 graduate of the Leadership Denver program through the Denver Chamber of Commerce.

Yolanda is the proud mother of two adult children and has two grandchildren.